

LOCAL DOTS

—Sheriff John P. Hunter was in Kershaw one day this week on official business.

—Cotton is bringing 12 3/4 cents in Lancaster today and cotton seed 54 cents per bushel.

—Rev. W. P. Grier of Clover will preach in the A. R. F. church Sabbath evening at 7:30 o'clock.

—W. B. Twitty, proprietor of the Twittihale farms, Heath Springs, is in Columbia with his usual fine line of swine.—Columbia Record.

—The vacant lot on Main street between the homes of Mr. R. E. Wyllie and Capt. D. E. Penny is being prepared for the county fair, which will be held thereon next week.

—Mr. M. L. Beckham, Government agent for Lancaster county, reports that up to October 18, 9,568 bales of cotton had been ginned, against 8,391 the same date last year.

—The friends of Mr. W. T. Gregory will regret to learn that his condition does not improve. He was taken to Baltimore this week for examination and treatment, which we hope will soon restore him to better health.

—Luther Ellison, secretary of the Lancaster Chamber of Commerce, was in Kershaw last Wednesday boosting the Lancaster county fair and distributing copies of the fair edition of The Lancaster News.—Kershaw Era.

—The Civic League will not hold its November meeting next Wednesday on account of the fair, but will postpone it until the second Wednesday, November 10, at which time the February program will be substituted for the November program.

—John D. Arant of Lancaster was in Kershaw last Wednesday and Thursday visiting at the home of J. H. Horton. His daughter, Miss Bleeker Arant, who clerked several weeks in the store of E. V. Truesdale, returned to Lancaster with him.—Kershaw Era.

—The chairman of the fancy work department of the Lancaster county fair asks us to call the attention of the members of her committee to the fact that the fair will soon open and to urge them to solicit and bring in as many articles as possible from their friends and neighbors for exhibition.

—Mr. T. M. Belk, the surveyor, was in town yesterday and talked optimistically of conditions in Lancaster county. He says that with better prices for cotton have come better prices for land and cited several tracts which had changed hands within the past several weeks. He says "real estate is on the upward incline."

—Through the cordies of Manager Parr of the Star Theatre, the teachers of Lancaster county, who will meet at the Central school auditorium tomorrow, will be given free tickets to the movies tomorrow afternoon. Tomorrow also coffee and sandwiches will be served to the teachers by the social service committee of the Civic League.

SOCIAL NEWS.

Mrs. James Witherspoon entertained the Friday Afternoon Book Club delightfully at its last meeting. "The First American" was the early phase of United States history discussed. The current events last Friday afternoon proved unusually interesting. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted in serving by her two attractive little grandchildren, Master James and little Miss Lucy Witherspoon.

Mrs. Joseph K. Connors entertained the Chestfield Avenue Club at its last meeting, when a charming afternoon was spent by the neighborhood rook devotees, who constitute the membership of this congenial club. After a series of games the hostess and her sister, Miss Zelma Johnson, served a dainty salad course with coffee.

James Everett Hunter entertained fourteen of the younger set at a birthday party at the charming bungalow on North Main street Tuesday night. Three tables of rook were played. Miss Willis Elliott and Alva Bell holding top score, the former received a dainty crepe de chine handkerchief and the latter a white silk tie. Dainty refreshments were served in two courses.

Pocket Book Stolen.

Mr. William Hayes of the New Bethel section met with a misfortune at the fair in Columbia. Some crook relieved him of his pocket book and between $50 and $75 in money. Mr. Hayes is certain that the pocketbook was in his left hand pants pocket when he bought his ticket at the entrance to the fair grounds. He says there was a perfect jam of people at the entrance, showing their way in and that there was a lady just in front of him and a large, slick looking fellow just behind him, who was crying out, "Shove in, shove in." That immediately after getting in he felt for his pocket book and it was gone. He says he feels satisfied that the fellow who was urging the crowd to "shove in" is the fellow that got his pocket book. Mr. Hayes says he never expects to get his money.

Monday night about 10 o'clock, while at work in a shaft in the Haile Gold mine, two negro employees, Frank Belton and Ebb Harper, were accidentally killed when a overhanging rock fell upon them. Belton was killed instantly, while Harper lingered only a few hours.

FOOTBALL GAME.

Lancaster to Play Camden Fair Week.

Lancaster and Camden will play football on the local field Friday, November 5. Some weeks ago Lancaster defeated Camden at Camden 25 to 0. The locals have a good team and are going to demonstrate to their townsmen that they have attained considerable efficiency in this, the greatest of all high school and college games. The school authorities trust that the Lancastrians will all go to the game and make as much noise as possible. Early next week tickets can be had at the drug stores or from members of the team. Admission 15 and 25 cents.
